Glossary of Terms

Commercial Interest

MsPMA defines a "commercial interest" as any entity producing, marketing, re-selling or distributing health care goods or services consumed by, or used on, patients.

Financial relationships

Financial relationships are those relationships in which the individual benefits by receiving a salary, royalty, intellectual property rights, consulting fee, honoraria, ownership interest (e.g., stocks, stock options or other ownership interest, excluding diversified mutual funds), or other financial benefit. Financial benefits are usually associated with roles such as employment, management position, independent contractor (including contracted research), consulting, speaking and teaching, membership on advisory committees or review panels, board membership, and other activities from which remuneration is received, or expected. MsPMA considers relationships of the person involved in the CME activity to include financial relationships of a spouse or partner.

Relevant financial relationships

"Relevant" financial relationships" are financial relationships in any amount occurring within the past 12 months that create a conflict of interest.

Conflict of Interest

Circumstances create a conflict of interest when an individual has an opportunity to affect CPME content about products or services of a commercial interest with which he/she has a financial relationship.
